

THE MUD CASTLE

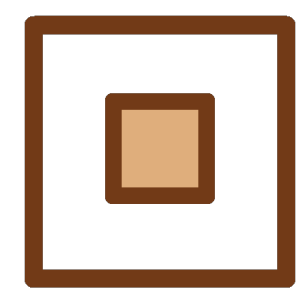

Apartment buildings in Karachi Pakistan

Local and sustainable

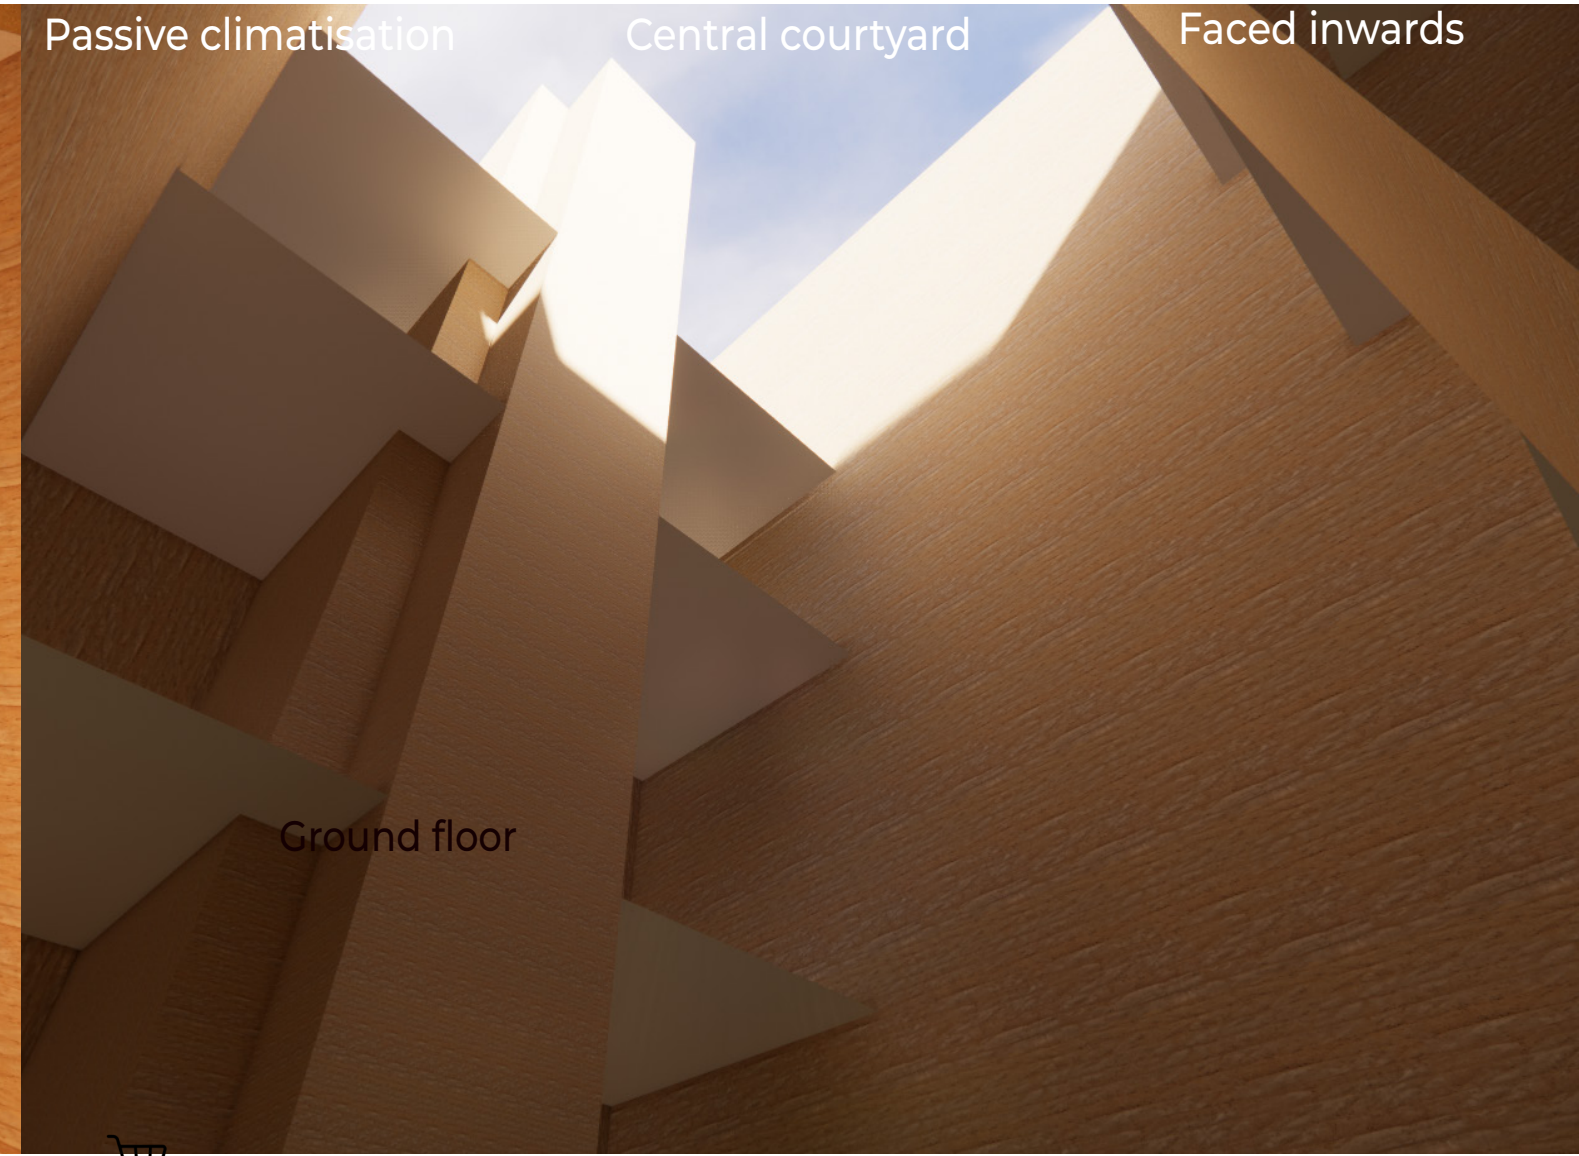

Passive climatisation

Central courtyard

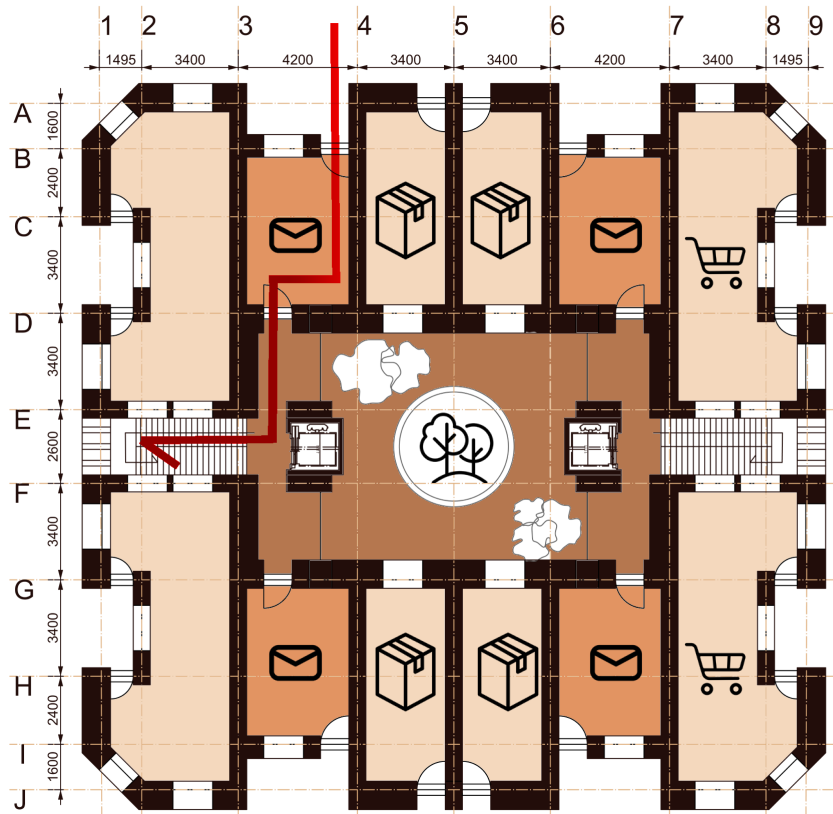

Faced inwards

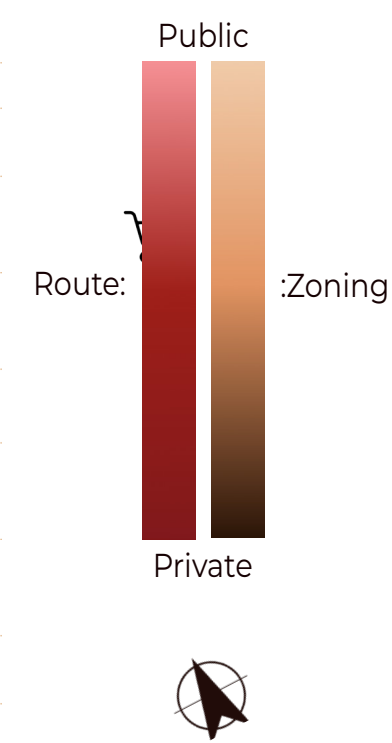

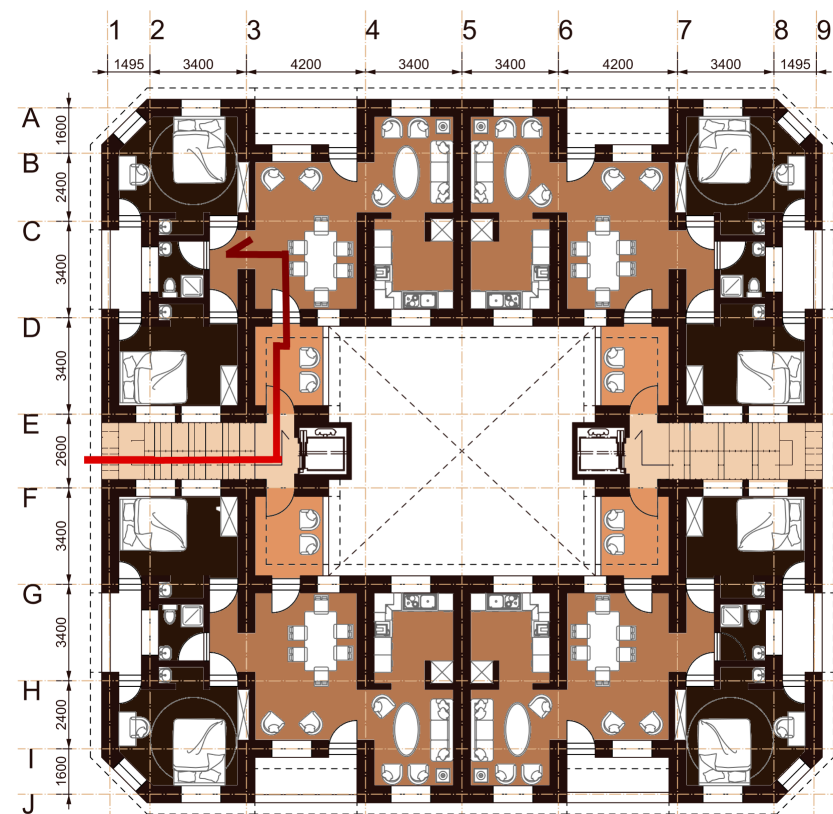

Ground floor

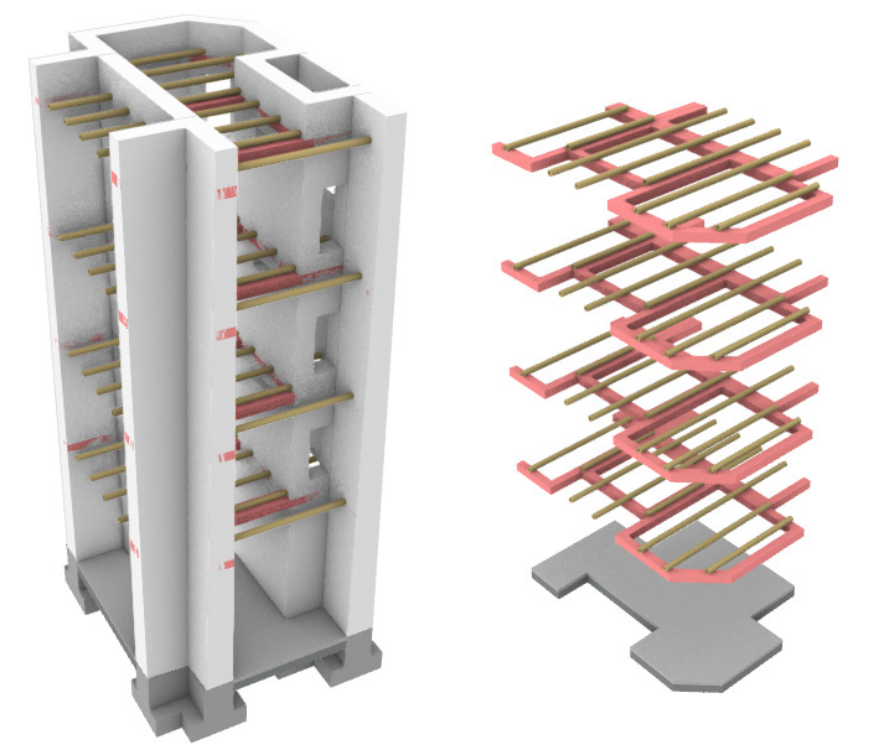

Ground floor

First floor

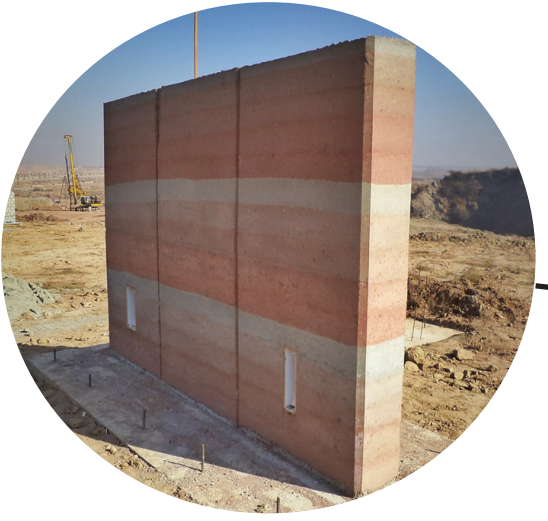

Main structure

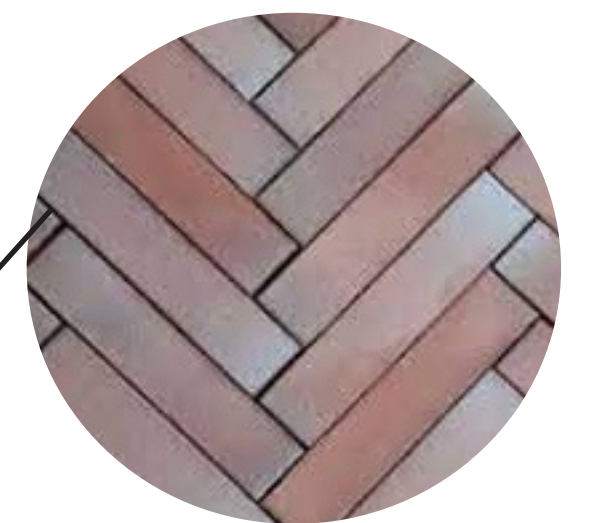

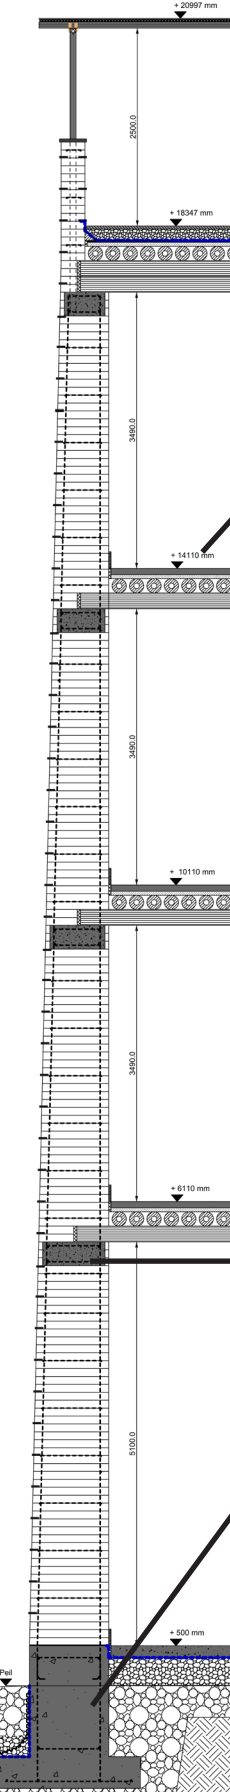

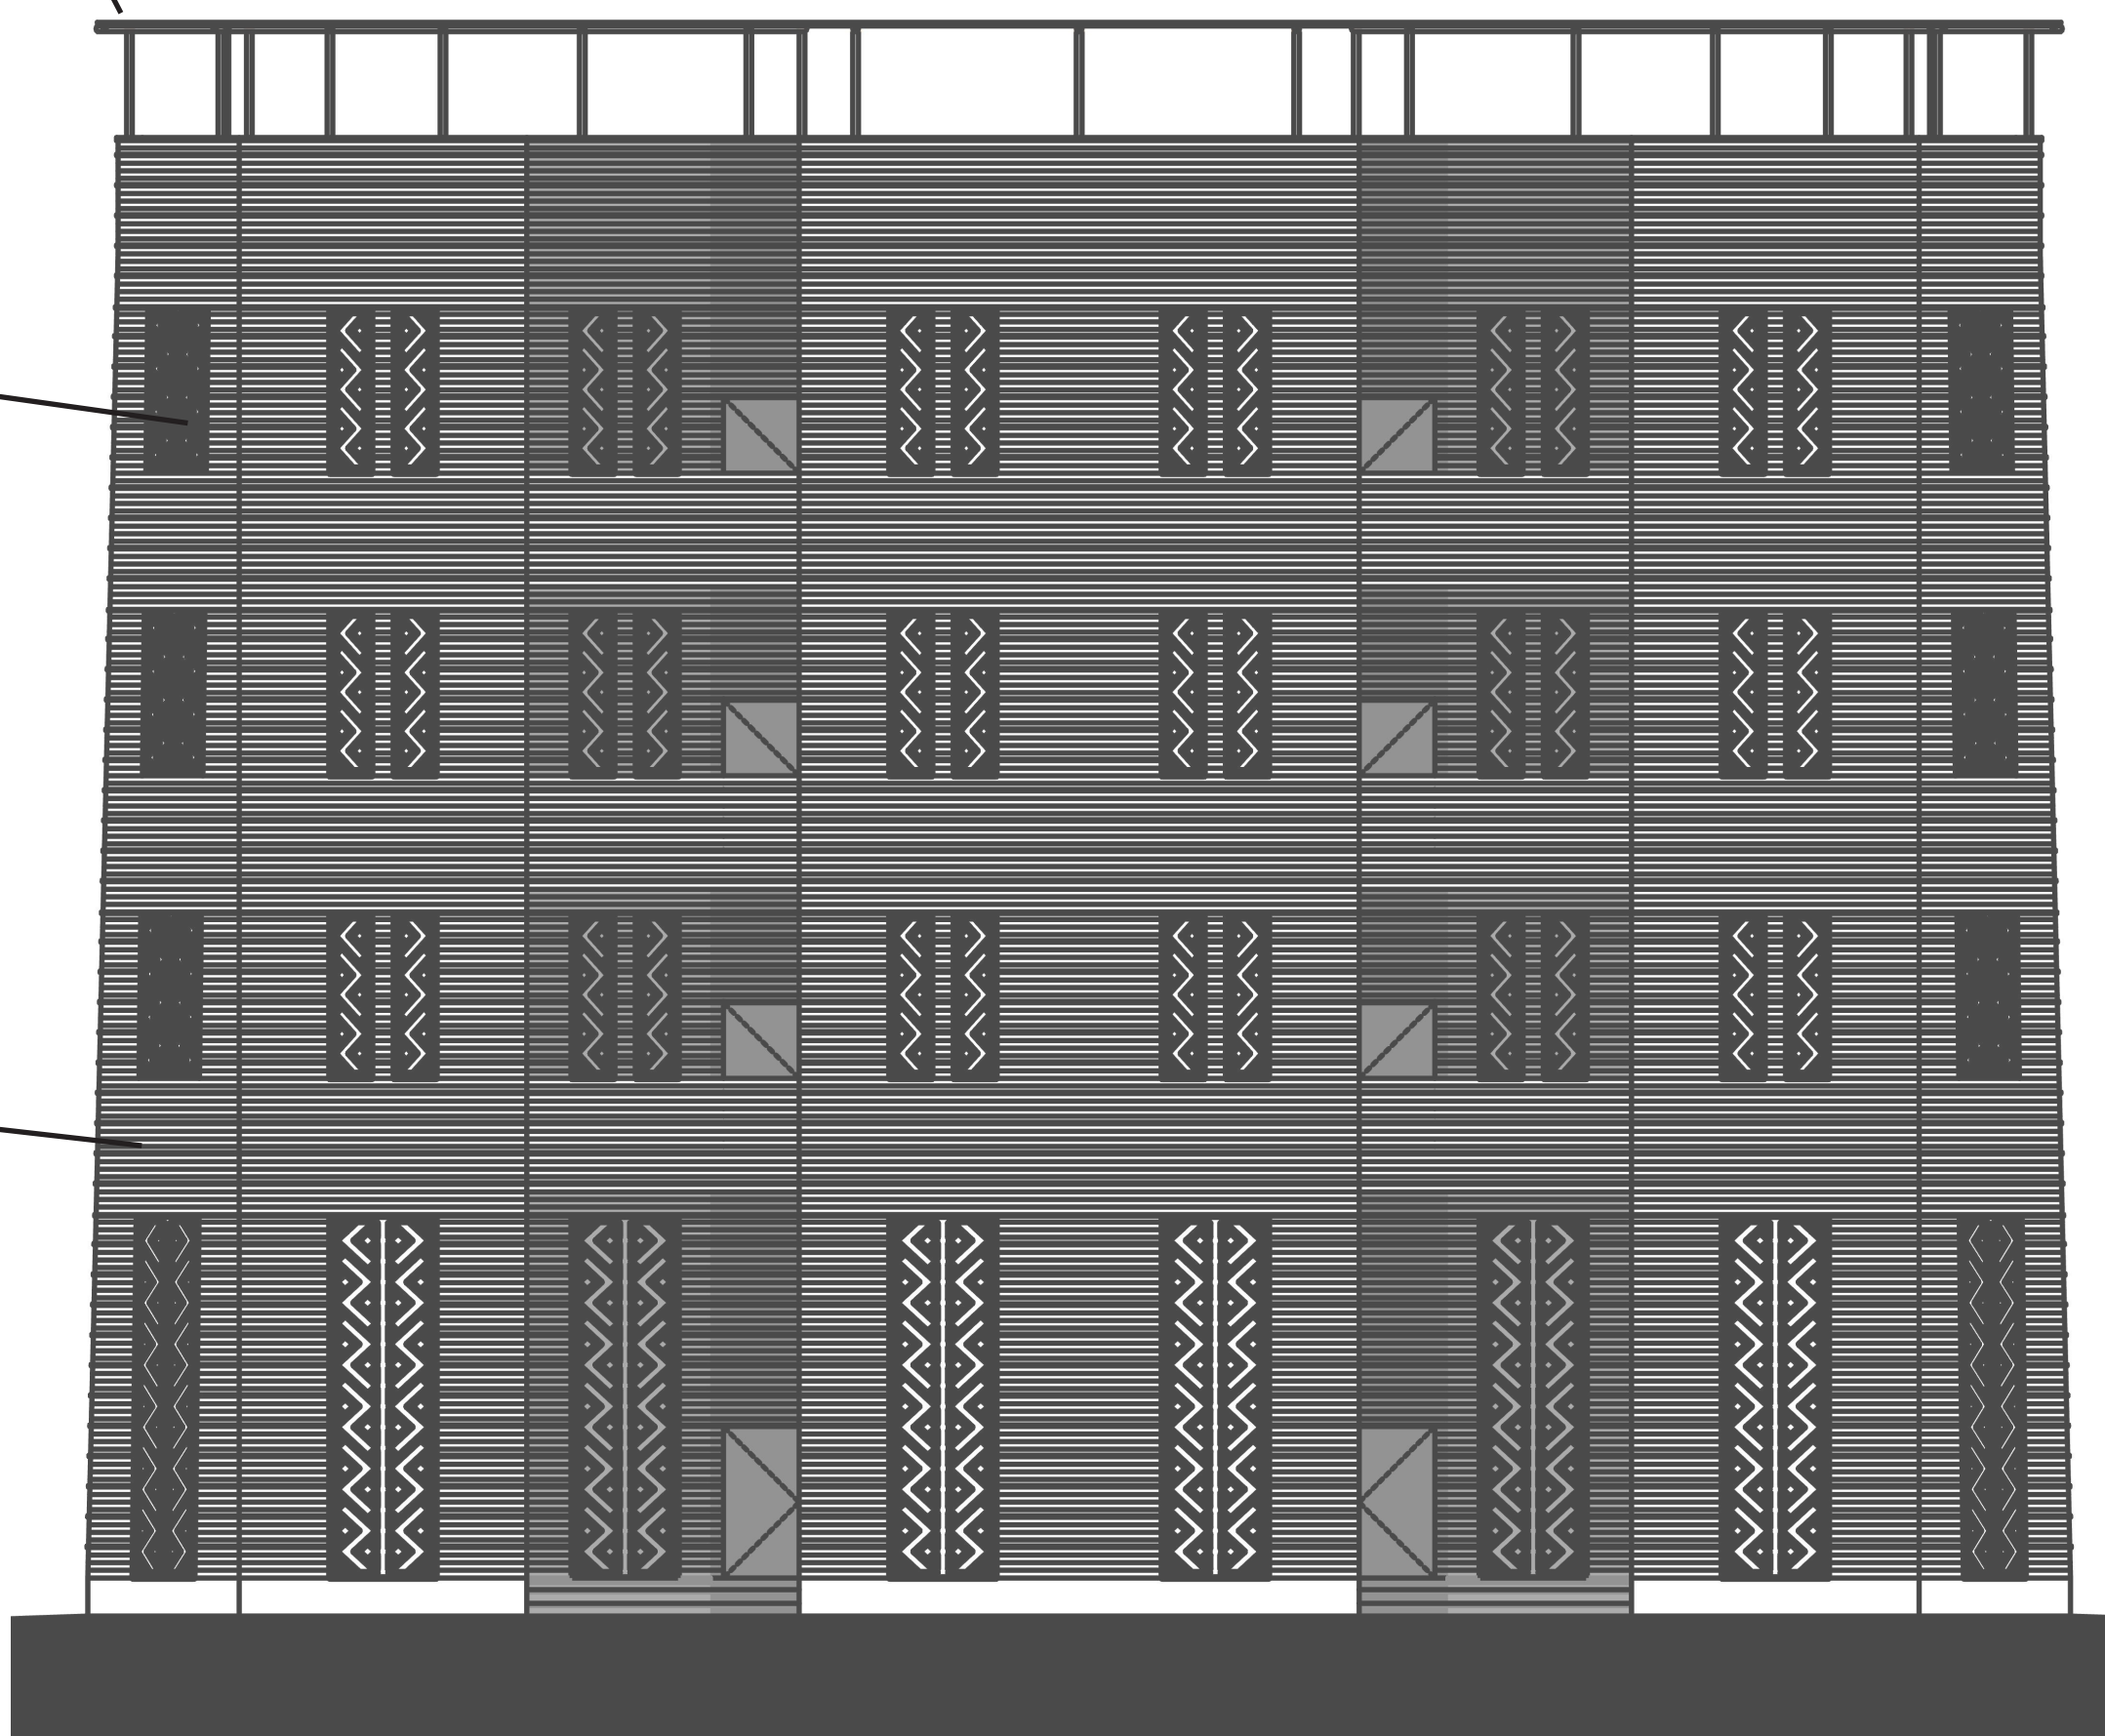

Bamboo floor and roof construction
Bambusa bamboo
(Cultivated native species)

Wooden window frames and Jali

Lime stabilized
Steel and bamboo reinforced
Rammed earth
(Using the soil from right under your feet)

Fired mudbrick tiles as floor finish and brick checks

Concrete ground floor, Reinforced concrete
ringbeams and foundation

Climate

Porous facade faced towards the main wind direction

Cross ventilation and cooling through courtyard

Climate

Main infrastructure

Use of land

Greenery
Hafta bazar
(a square)
Shops
Residential

Sources photo's:
Tahir Zahid Ishrad

